Earlham seeks an Assistant Professor of History for a full-time, tenure-track position to begin Fall 2010. Teaches undergraduate courses in U.S. and North American history. Develops new integrative approach to Native American history. Leads related off-campus or international programs.

Qualifications. Ph.D. in history preferred by time of appointment. ABD accepted. Teaching excellence, research and professional activity expected. Expertise in Native American history desirable.

Review of applications begins October 15, 2009, and continues until position filled.

Full job description and application instructions: www.earlham.edu/jobs

Earlham eagerly solicits applications from African Americans and other ethnic minorities, women and Quakers.