

I'm interested in Art!
What should I take this year?

Name of program: Art

First year students who are interested in art, either as a potential major, minor, or as an area of enrichment in their lives, are welcome in any of our introductory classes.

Begin with one or more of the following introductory courses in the fall and/or spring semesters:

Art 105: Drawing I

Art 115/116: Art: Context and Meaning I and/or II (the introductory Art History series)

Art 200: Ceramics I

Art 202: Fiber Arts I

Art 211: 20th Century Art History

Art 220: Introduction to Metals and 3D Fabrication

Art 225: Painting I

Art 235: Photography I

Art 245: Weaving I

Does your department accept AP/IB courses for credit or advanced placement? If so, what scores qualify, and what placement is granted?

Yes, students can receive credit. Placement is discussed with the faculty member. Please see Jeff Templeton in the Visual and Performing Arts office to be directed to the most relevant faculty member.
