Earlham College
Baccalaureate Service
Class of 2021
Baccalaureate Service
Thursday, May 20, 2021, 4:00 pm

...

PRELUDE
“Let’s Get It Started” by Black Eyed Peas
Performance by Hand Drum Ensemble

WELCOME
Tinotenda Chigasa and Gisselle Salgado

PRAYERS
Emma Milner-Gorvine (Jewish)
Yujeong Lee (Christian)
Ahmed Omer (Muslim)

ORIGINAL POETRY
Alexander Heyrman and Jasmine Lorenza

SPECIAL MUSIC
“Đen đá không đường” by AMEE, Performed by Hanna Nguyen

STUDENT STORYTELLING
Brittney Kate Chong
Evan Feldberg-Bannatyne
Marc Gendreau
Esther Mano
Leonel Martin
Dana Moore
Spencer North
Kendra Parker
Dominic Saidu
Muskan Uprety
FACULTY REFLECTIONS
Walt Bistline, associate professor of art
Lailul Ikram, assistant director of orientation, interfaith coordinator, mediator
Lindsey McGee, assistant professor of biology
Eboni Stevens, assistant director of EPIC communications and career coach
Belén Villarreal, assistant professor of spanish & hispanic studies

SILENT WORSHIP
Worship from stillness reflects the Quaker belief that God is accessible to every person. An appropriate way to respond to this capacity within us to know God directly is to become still and listen. We center ourselves and listen not just as individuals, but as a group.

SPECIAL MUSIC
“See You Again” by Charlie Puth, Performed by Adla Burza

BENEDICTION
Cynthia Lanor and Rafaella Shima

POSTLUDE
“Mi Gente” by J Balvin